Re: D59: Gateways: Demons of Air and Darkness Review Thread (Spoilers! I've just really started into the D59 relaunch, and finished this one as well as the short story conclusion of it, just a few weeks ago. It was a very strong addition to the D59R, and I loved reading a KRAD book that I had never read. Voted outstanding

Deep Space Nine: Demons of Air and Darkness, by Keith R. A. DeCandido Tying directly into the events of the previous book, and following the events of Section 31-Abyss, we find that there are three major plots rolling here. One, naturally, is the ongoing question of the Gateways, as none have been spotted anywhere near Bajor.
