Samuel Smiles Self-Help was published the same year as Darwin's Origin of the Species and John Stuart Mill's On Liberty . While Darwin drew a picture of how closer adaptation to environment refines life, and Mill sketched a society based on liberal values, Smiles gave the world a work that still inspires in its scenes of individuals who have fashioned a life from pure will.

Samuel Smiles - Wikipedia

Samuel Smiles was the icon of "self help" proponents and a non-fiction rags-to-riches story-teller who set the standard for all such later to come. At a time when socialist thought was at its infancy, Smiles showed how many of the greatest innovators and wealthy entrepreneurs had risen from the lowest rungs of society and that frugality, hard work, abstinence, optimism and perseverance were the route out of poverty.
